FactShala training workshop by Minati Chaklanavis- a two hour media literacy training workshop to empower the students of GDMM on 20th Sept, 2023.

Through this workshop the participants learnt not only to verify information but also think critically. The workshop enriched the participants as they learnt the tools and techniques to handle their social media account smartly. Critical Thinking will help them develop their own concept and understanding of anything they read, hear or see.

Girls with disabilities face double jeopardy as women of being a girl and on top of that a girl having disability.

In a culture where any deviation from normally accepted archetypes is seen as a marked deviation, the impaired body becomes a symbol of imperfection.

The myth of the beautiful body defines the impaired female body as unfeminine and unacceptable.

STILL, I RISE.
You may write me down in history
With your bitter, twisted lies,
You may tread me in the very dirt,
But still, like dust, I rise.

You may shoot me with your words,
You may cut me with your eyes,
You may kill me with your hatefulness,
But still like air, I rise.

Just like moon and like sun,
With the certainty of tides,
Just like hope springing high,
Still I rise.
I rise, I rise, I rise.

 Organized by:
 Department of philosophy, G.D.M. College, Patna in collaboration with
 Department of philosophy, H.P.S. College, Nirmal, Nagpur

Poverty has made itself a presence in everyone's lives. Fundamentally, Poverty is a denial of equality opportunities and violation of human dignity. Hence, it is a source of exclusion of individuals and fragile environments.
 "Poverty is not only about being hungry and homeless. The poverty of being unwanted and uncared for is the greatest poverty."
 Mother Teresa
